[Program Updates in Response to COVID-19 \[3\]](#)

March 12, 2020

In accordance with the University administration's guidance released on Wednesday, March 11th, most LGBTQ Center-organized Pride Week events and a number of other programs scheduled have been canceled.

Our co-sponsors may use their discretion to hold events they have planned for Pride

Week. Please see the event list at go.unc.edu/PrideWeek and contact the sponsors noted for any individual event you are interested in attending.

Most of our March programming is canceled. See exceptions below under "Tentative Events." We are currently planning for April and May programs while

Pride Week 2020 at Carolina \(Canceled\) [4]

February 19, 2020

Notice: Pride Week 2020 Canceled

In light of the guidance that the University has sent out around COVID-19, the LGBTQ Center has made the decision to cancel Pride Week. While we are very disappointed to lose this chance to celebrate LGBTQ identity and community, we are also sensitive to the importance of social distancing in preserving the health of as many members of our community as possible.

Original Description

The LGBTQ Center will partner with other on-campus and community organizations to host the second annual Pride Week at Carolina from March
