

Week of Welcome Events

Start off each school year with one or more of our casual social events for LGBTIQ+ folks, their affirming loved ones, and allies! Get to know one another while learning about groups, clubs, and upcoming events that focus on community and/or advocacy related to gender and sexual diversity.

LGBTQ Center Welcome Brunch

Generally held the Monday before classes begin, Welcome Brunch is a free drop-in event featuring free refreshments, an LGBTQ-themed playlist, a photo booth, crafting and coloring. We encourage faculty and staff to attend so that students and other University employees are able to recognize affirming members of the campus community.

No tickets or advanced registration required. RSVPs on Facebook and Heel Life are encouraged. Facebook RSVP lists are hidden to protect your privacy.
. Please contact the LGBTQ Center at lgbtq@unc.edu [1] or 919-843-5376 at least one week prior to this event if you require accommodations to participate.

Queer FallFest

Queer FallFest is an information fair for new and returning students seeking to connect (or reconnect) with others who share interests in social equity for people of marginalized sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions.

QFF is for anyone who wants to:

- Find out how to become an LGBTQ Center Ambassador and help shape Center programming.
- Learn about upcoming events scheduled or being planned for the semester.
- Get involved with student organizations that work towards equity and cultivate community for LGBTQIA+ and allied students.

- Learn about LGBTQIA+ specific services and resources around campus.

Queer FallFest is historically hosted by student organization UNC Sexuality and Gender Alliance (UNC SAGA).
