Program Updates in Response to COVID-19

In accordance with the University administration’s guidance released on Wednesday, March 11th, most LGBTQ Center-organized Pride Week events and a number of other programs scheduled have been canceled.

Our co-sponsors may use their discretion to hold events they have planned for Pride Week. Please see the event list at go.unc.edu/PrideWeek and contact the sponsors noted for any individual event you are interested in attending.

Most of our March programming is canceled. See exceptions below under "Tentative Events." We are currently planning for April and May programs while waiting for additional guidance from the University. We will be provide updates as we learn more.
