About LGBTIQA+ Advocacy Awards

This award recognizes contributions to or advocacy on behalf of LGBTQIA+ communities at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Individuals who have contributed in one or more of the following ways are eligible for consideration:

- Advocated on behalf of LGBTQIA+ individuals or groups
- Conducted educational programming or research regarding LGBTQIA+ communities
- Helped to improve campus or community policies affecting LGBTIQ-identified persons;
- Enhanced visibility and awareness of LGBTQIA+ issues.

We are particularly interested in work done from an intersectional framework, meaning that it accounted for the fact that people experience the world in very different ways depending on the constellation of societally privileged and marginalized identities they hold.
Eligibility

- Undergraduate students, Graduate students, and Professional students; including those who work or volunteer in the LGBTQ Center are eligible.
- Faculty, PostDocs, and Staff who work outside of the LGBTQ Center are eligible.
- Since we administer the award, LGBTQ Center professional staff (Director, Asst. Director, and Administrative Support Specialist) are not eligible.
- LGBTIQA+ Advocacy Awards Committee Members who are nominated may recuse themselves from their respective category or decline the nomination.

Nomination Guidelines

- Anyone may submit a nomination.
- Self-nominations are encouraged.
- Up to three people can be nominated at once if they are working closely on the same project.

Nomination Form

Nomination Category * - Select -
Name of Nominee(s) *
Nominee’s Email Address *
How did the nominee advocate on behalf of LGBTQIA+ individuals and/or groups?
Please respond in 100-150 words. Use a tool such as https://wordcounter.io/ to compose your response or check your word count before submitting.

What educational programming or research regarding LGBTQIA+ communities has the nominee conducted?
Please respond in 100-150 words. Use a tool such as https://wordcounter.io/ to compose your response or check your word count before submitting.

How did the nominee improve campus or community policies affecting LGBTIQA-identified persons?
Please respond in 100-150 words. Use a tool such as https://wordcounter.io/ to compose your response or check your word count before submitting.
How did the nominee enhance visibility and awareness of LGBTQIA+ issues?

Please respond in 100-150 words. Use a tool such as https://wordcounter.io/ to compose your response or check your word count before submitting.

In what ways was this work done from an intersectional framework, meaning that it accounted for the fact that people experience the world in very different ways depending on the constellation of societally privileged and marginalized identities they hold?

Please respond in 100-150 words. Use a tool such as https://wordcounter.io/ to compose your response or check your word count before submitting.

What was the overall impact of this person's work on campus?

Please respond in 100-150 words. Use a tool such as https://wordcounter.io/ to compose your response or check your word count before submitting.

Source URL: https://lgbtq.unc.edu/programs/community-building/lgbtiqa-advocacy-awards/nomination-form