LGBTQ Center Library

Books and videos are available to students, staff, and faculty with a UNC PID number for a two-week check out period. Patrons can search the library holdings via the UNC-Chapel Hill Libraries Catalog, but must visit the LGBTQ Center in order to check out materials. Materials may be renewed depending on availability and requests for use by other patrons.

Non-UNC affiliates may only use resources within the LGBTQ Center.

Checking Out Books

Process while socially distancing

While the LGBTQ Center is not holding in-person programs, Center staff are able to arrange book pick-ups with a 1 to 2-week processing time. Follow these steps to request books:

1. Browse for available titles using the options above.
2. Book a pick-up time here [4] or by emailing us at lgbtq@unc.edu [5] with the following information:
   - your name (does not have to match campus record)
   - your onyen
   - your weekly availability
   - URLs of up to three books (e.g. https://www.librarycat.org/lib/UNC_LGBTQ/item/186638444
Returning Books

Process while socially distancing

Return books to the LGBTQ Center library by placing them in the bin outside of the LGBTQ Center's entrance and sending a photo of the returned book(s) to lgbtq@unc.edu or (850) 739-1998.
