Organizations

Accord Alliance

<http://www.accordalliance.org>

Accord Alliance's mission is to promote comprehensive and integrated approaches to care that enhance the health and well-being of people and families affected by DSD by fostering collaboration among all stakeholders. This website includes research, resource guides for families and health providers, and links to support groups.

InterACT Advocates for Intersex Youth

<https://interactadvocates.org>

InterACT advocates for the human rights of children born with intersex traits. Their website provides easy to understand information on intersex characteristics and identities, brochures, videos, guides to supporting intersex youth, and suggestions for celebrating Intersex Awareness Day.

Intersex Society of North America

<http://www.isna.org>

The Intersex Society of North America (ISNA) was devoted to systemic change to end shame, secrecy, and unwanted genital surgeries for intersex people. While it is not still an active organization, the website serves as a great source of information on intersex characteristics.

The Intersex Campaign for Equality (IC4E)

www.intersexequality.com

The Intersex Campaign for Equality promotes human rights and intersex equality for all intersex people through arts, education, and actions. This organization was formerly known as the American affiliate of the Organization Intersex International (OII-USA).

The Interface Project

www.interfaceproject.org

The Interface Project communicates the lived experiences of intersex people through recording the voices, transcribing the words, and publishing the stories of people born with a variation of sex anatomy.
