

Sexual Orientation and Gender Reflection

UNC-Chapel Hill
SAFE ZONE

Write brief responses to each of the prompts below.

How does my gender identity make life easier or more difficult for me? Have I ever been told I had to do something because of my gender identity? Have I ever been told I could not do something because of my gender identity?

How does my sexual or romantic orientation make life easier or more difficult for me? Have I ever been told I had to do something because of my sexual or romantic orientation? Have I ever been told I could not do something because of my sexual or romantic orientation?

How do other identities I hold intersect with my gender identity?

How do other identities I hold intersect with my sexual or romantic orientation?